LE WESTIN MONTRÉAL FACT SHEET

OVERVIEW

Le Westin Montréal is the triumphant renewal of three heritage buildings dating back to the late 1800s wherein the presses of Montréal's The Gazette newspaper rolled for more than 100 years. With the addition of a new ultramodern 22-storey hotel tower Le Westin offers the best of old world charm mixed with modern indulgence. Open since May 2009, Le Westin provides unparalleled meeting facilities with over 30,000 square feet of magnificent meeting space and more to follow. Le Westin Montréal is instinctively located between the cobblestone streets of Old Montréal paving the way for an exploration of spectacular restaurants, galleries, boutiques and sites that epitomize Montréal's history and joie de vivre, and the contemporary Palais des Congrès, the city's main convention facility. The hotel is conveniently located a short walk from Montréal's main rail station and just 25 minutes from Montréal-Trudeau International Airport. At Le Westin we approach each guest personally. Our goal is for each guest to leave feeling better than they did when they arrived.

DESIGN

One of the most unique of the many outstanding architectural elements of Le Westin Montréal is the indoor glass bottom swimming pool that hovers high above the hotel's grand indoor entranceway. Upon arrival guests will experience the unique indoor driveway while they take in the work of Quebec and Canadian artists preserved from the original heritage buildings that formed Le Westin Montréal. Located in the lobby of Le Westin is a masterpiece titled Icicles. Created by Kelvin Goddard from Unit 5 in Toronto, the extravagant creation is made up of 50 000 pieces of individually hand cut aluminum hanging on 600 strings. This breathtaking piece reaches 21 feet long and 13 feet wide and took 5 days to install.

MEETINGS

The new Le Westin Montréal is currently equipped with over 40,000 square feet of meeting space on the third, eighth, ninth and tenth floors. Le Westin's unique event space features the only ballrooms in the city filled with natural light from 20-ft high floor-to-ceiling windows. The 1,500 square-foot open-air terrace overlooking the city just off one of the ballrooms provides guests with a spectacular view of the Montréal skyline. The hotel has just unveiled the final phase of meeting rooms, a 10,000 square foot convention space on the eighth floor ideal for trade shows.

Le Westin's spectacular space accommodates groups of up to 800 people with the ability to comfortably meet and feed up to 400 guests with one ballroom to cater to each.

The meeting space at Le Westin Montréal was designed to accommodate the needs of today's meeting and events planner, with three dedicated high-speed elevators and designated banquet kitchens located on each ballroom floor. Each of Le Westin's 39 meeting rooms are equipped for high speed Internet access and feature extensive VPN capabilities, allowing secure, instant access to e-mail and corporate networks. Multimedia presentations featuring live web content can be easily delivered to large or small audiences with built-in projectors and screens, as can online product demonstrations, training sessions, videoconferences and webcasting.* An onsite Technology Concierge is available to guide planners every step of the way.

DINING

Guests of Le Westin will enjoy contemporary Quebec cuisine with an emphasis on local and seasonal fare in Le Westin's elegant, street level gaZette restaurant. gaZette promotes the terroir farm-to-table slow food movement using locally sourced ingredients and unique food preparation methods which inspire and challenge the palette.

For guests who are looking for a more relaxed dining experience Reporter is ideal. The casual Reporter Lounge offers expertly prepared beverages and delicious Tapas in a trendy and relaxed atmosphere. Reporter's menu offers guests a number of low-calorie Super Food items to allow guests to stick to a healthy diet even while traveling.

FITNESS

Le Westin Montréal's Westin WORKOUT offers guests a first class fitness center with views overlooking the city. Le Westin's fitness center is complete with top of the line equipment, indoor glass bottom swimming pool and twin pool, and relaxing whirlpools and saunas, truly making it the perfect place to renew.

Le Westin's Run Concierge program caters to guests who enjoy running to keep fit. Guests are provided with a map and personal guide to lead a running tour throughout the city three days per week. Upon their return, guests receive a refreshing bottle of water and towel to cool down.
