ASKMEN A. LIST // AUGUST 19, 2010

CONTEST OF THE WEEK

An A. List Weekend In Montreal

Why? Because this is why we call ourselves the A. List.

We know there's a little bit of a rivalry, but Toronto and Montreal are the two most interesting cities in Canada, and that's why we think they should get to know each other a little better. That's why AskMen, in conjunction with Le Westin Montreal, have decided to help the process. We're sending one A. List reader, along with his companion of choice, to stay for a weekend at the Westin Montreal and check out the competition.

We're also including airfare, breakfast and dinner for two at the Westin Montreal's gaZette restaurant (see A. List coverage here), just because that's how we roll. To enter, send your contact info. to alphamail@askmen.com. For rules and regulations, click here. The drawing will be held on Wednesday, August 25th. Bonne chance!
