Le Westin Montreal Adds Even More Meeting Space with Opening of a New Tradeshow Hall

Toronto, ON - Le Westin Montreal's extraordinary 16,000 square foot open concept exhibition hall is the newest addition to the hotel's expansive 40,000 square feet of windowed meeting space. Offering stunning skyline views, the new space is made up of a 8,700 square foot Grande Place along with seven adjoining breakout rooms (ranging from 550 to 1300 square feet each). When combined they create an extraordinary 16,000 square foot open concept exhibition hall that can accommodate up to 83 8'x10' trade show booths. The impressive new Montreal event space proudly boasts floor-to-ceiling windows and can easily be transformed from the site of a modern symposium to a chic wedding.

Located in Old Montreal, directly across from the Le Palais des Congres, Le Westin is the only hotel in Montreal featuring ballrooms filled with natural light from 20-foot high floor-to-ceiling windows opening onto a 2,600 square foot open-air terrace overlooking the historic city. Le Westin Montreal's unique event spaces can accommodate groups of up to 800 people with the ability to comfortably meet and feed more than 500 guests.

Le Westin has designed all its adaptable meeting space to accommodate the various needs of today's meeting and event planners; three dedicated high-speed elevators and designated banquet kitchens service each ballroom. Le Westin's 39 meeting rooms are equipped for high speed Internet access, digital way-finding, and feature extensive VPN capabilities, allowing secure, instant access to e-mail and corporate networks. Multimedia presentations featuring live web content can be easily delivered to large or small audiences with built-in projectors and screens, as can online product demonstrations, training sessions, videoconferences and web casting.

This fall, meeting planners can take advantage of a special offer to try Le Westin Montreal. Contact the sales department prior to December 31st and mention the tour it.love it.get it free promotion to take advantage of a free plenary meeting space offer. For more details:
